WHAT ARE COOKIES?

Cookies are a feature of web browser software that allows web servers to recognise the computer used to access a website. Cookies are small pieces of data that are stored by a user's web browser on the user's hard drive

Cookies can remember what information a user accesses on one web page to simplify subsequent interactions with that web site by the same user or to use the information to streamline the web page and to complete commercial transactions over the Internet. Cookies should make your online experience easier and more personalized

Our website cookie use is limited to `wordpress_test_cookie`, which wordpress sets in order to verify if cookies can be set. The duration of this cookie is limited to the duration of your visit to our website.

Your browser will give you the option of preventing websites using cookies, or deleting cookies that have been accepted. Your browser's help service or help manual will show you how this is done. If you do not want your browser to accept cookies, you can "turn off" the cookie acceptance setting on your browser setting. However you must note that this may stop websites from working properly on your device. If you do not change your browser settings to refuse cookies, our website will issue cookies outlined above when you visit our website. If you continue to use our website, you agree and consent to our use of cookies on your device

SECURITY

We employ security measures to protect your information from access by unauthorised persons and to guard against unlawful processing, accidental loss, destruction and damage and we will do our best to ensure that all records we hold remain secure in line with our obligations under Data Protection Acts 1988 to 2018. We take our security responsibilities seriously, employing appropriate physical and technical measures. We review our security procedures regularly

RETENTION

We do not request or retain any personal data.

ACCESSING YOUR INFORMATION
